WHAT IS ROBATA ?

All our fish and meats are prepared using Robata, a traditional Japanese cooking method with centuries of history.

Invented by fishermen from Hokkaidō island, it involves enclosing charcoal in stone boxes to cook food slowly and infuse it with rich flavors.

1. tataki (ta.ta.ki) masculine

From Japanese meaning "cut into pieces."

A dish made of seared and marinated meat or fish in vinegar, then sliced and seasoned.

2. tonkatsu (ton.ka.tsu) masculine

Also known as Bull-Dog sauce.

A sauce made from tomato and apple with a hint of lemon and sweet-salty soy cream.

3. yuzu (ju.zu) masculine

A citrus fruit native to East Asia, a hybrid between wild mandarin and Ichang lemon.

Service charge included.

MEATS

Shogayaki¹ Pork Shoulder 25€
